

THE EARLY RAIN WHICH WASHES AWAY THE CHAFF BEFORE SPRING RAINS

by Heiko-Thandeka Ncube

SYNOPSIS

The title of this film translates to the Shona word “Gukurahundi,” a cynical euphemism which refers to a series of massacres, executed in wake of Zimbabwe’s liberation. The work unfolds as a mosaic, evoking ghosts in the shape of nationhood and ancestry. [73 Berlinale – Forum Expanded]

FESTIVALS

2023

73 BERLINALE – Forum Expanded

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Heiko-Thandeka Ncube

FORMAL CATEGORIES

History, Conflicts, War/Peace, Human Rights

CONTENT CATEGORIES

Essay, Experimental

LINKS / REFERENCE

PRODUCTION

heikoncube@gmail.com

<http://www.heikothandekancu...>

<https://www.FB.com/heiko.t...>