

THE INVISIBLE STRING

by Jan Bäss

SYNOPSIS

THE INVISIBLE STRING tells the amazing history of the flying disc movement. The documentary goes on a journey from the very beginning of pie pin tossing at the Frisbie's Pie Bakery in the 1930s to the Rose Bowl World Championships of the 1970s up to the greatest international tournaments and the hottest spots of today. Personal accounts of the most influential and remarkable Frisbee players accompanied by rare archive footage of the golden years give an exciting overlook on the development of the various disciplines of the sport. By presenting the hottest moves the most excentric protagonists are able to perform THE INVISIBLE STRING aims at reminding every single person of the importance of doing one thing: to keep playing!

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Jan Bäss · SCREENPLAY Michael Osterhoff, Greg Marter

Germany 2012

90 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

History, Social issues, Sports

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

English

PREMIERE

Germany (2012)

WORLD SALES

BOOMTOWNMEDIA

GmbH&CoKG

Köthener Str. 5

10963 Berlin

Germany

info@boomtownmedia.de

<http://www.boomtownmedia.de>