

THE INVISIBLE WOMAN

by Tanne Brodel

SYNOPSIS

Etchika Pollex has lived in the wrong body for 62 years - Olaf's body at.

But then he decides to have gender reassignment surgery and Olaf becomes a woman on the outside too.

For two years, author Tanne Brodel sensitively accompanied Etchika with her camera. She went with her to in search of traces of her memories, accompanied her to operations and experienced Etchika in many exceptional situations. She documents insights into a dramatic life.

The viewer experiences a traumatized youth who grew up in the GDR and struggles for 62 years to find his identity. Olaf goes through hopes and aberrations, becomes a rich businessman in West Berlin and finally a successful boxing promoter.

But every stage of Etchika's life is associated with inner conflicts, suffering and a rollercoaster of emotions. The daily look in the mirror becomes the compass of her life.

Etchika talks openly in the documentary:

About drug use, hopelessness, sex in the wrong body, travesty and a longing for death.
