

THE LAST DANCERS

by Martin Prinoth

SYNOPSIS

'Tanzpalast Kiss' is one of the last dance halls in Hamburg, where people of different cultures over their 50ies are coming together to dance in couples. The film immerses in a microcosmos of twinkeling plastic palms and glitter chandeliers, tracing loneliness and desire of individuals living in a major city. People that are either in search of love or just for someone to dance with for one evening, escaping from the daily loneliness by fleshly closeness.
