

THE LAST TAPE

by Igor Kosenko, Cyprien Clement-Delmas

SYNOPSIS

As Artiom prepares to fight for the Ukrainian army Anatoly his 88-year-old grandfather and war veteran records their diminishing time together and questions his choice.

See also the in 2018 accomplished 79min documentary BOY OF WAR Artiom's final struggle with the reality of war.

FESTIVALS

Awards:

- Seal of Approval 'highly recommended';
- Special Mention: Molodist Kiev International Film Festival
- Nominee: German Short Film Award - Deutscher Kurzfilmpreis

Festivals among others:

Hamburg International Short Film Festival Germany
Sheffield Doc/Fest England
Rhode Island International Film Festival USA
Silhouette Film Festival France
Ferfilm Film Festival Ferizaj Kosovo
Camden International Film Festival USA
European Trop Court Nice Film Festival France
Off Cinema International Film Festival Poland
Molodist International Film Festival Ukraine
Nordic Film Days Lübeck Germany
Tirana International Film Festival Albania
Izmir Kisa Short Film Festival Turkey
Kassel Dokfest Germany
KFFK Kurzfilmfestival Köln Germany
Bogoshorts Bogota Short Film Festival Colombia

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Igor Kosenko, Cyprien Clement-Delmas

Germany 2016

12 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Biographie/Portrait, Coming of Age, Current Affairs, War/Peace

CONTENT CATEGORIES

Short film

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

Ukrainian

PREMIERE

Germany (2016)

PRODUCTION COMPANY

Fabian&Fred GmbH

Elbchaussee 28

22765 Hamburg

Germany

fabian@fabianfred.com

<https://fabianfred.com>

FILM LOCATION

Ukraine

LINKS / REFERENCE

<https://vimeo.com/191616532>

<https://www.fbw-filmbewertu...>

<https://www.facebook.com/Fa...>

<https://german-documentarie...>