by Peter Heller (c/o filmkraft)

SYNOPSIS

Jean Pierre Felix-Eyoum, a Cameroonian living in Germany, embarks on a journey to find out about his great uncle, the Cameroonian King Rudolf Duala Manga Bell. As a child in the 1890s, Manga Bell went to school in Germany and later, as the king, stood up for the rights of his people. This sealed his fate: in 1914, the German colonial administration sentenced Manga Bell to death. [39 DOK.fest München, Barbara Off]2024
