

THE NIGHT OF ALL NIGHTS

by Yasemin Samdereli, Nesrin Samdereli

SYNOPSIS

The film of Yasemin and Nesrin Samdereli portrays five couples from Germany, Turkey, India, USA and Brazil. All of them have celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary together. Married couples who "made it" and accomplished something that today seems almost impossible: Staying together for a lifetime, in good times and in bad. When these people were "young" many rules of etiquette still existed that strongly dictated how "respectable" men and women were meant to behave. "Male and female" role models were clearly defined and breaking from the mold was hardly possible. While different in every society, the "rules" of proposing to a woman were often similarly "strict". It was not possible to "just meet up". Holding hands was considered scandalous. The wedding night was for most couples at that time the first sexual encounter with each other. Our light-hearted and humorous Documentary goes deeply into the secrets of partnership and love. How can couples...
