

THE VERHOEVENS

by Felix Moeller

SYNOPSIS

It is a journey through three generations and more than 70 years of filmmaking and history in Germany. Paul Verhoeven was a major stage director in the 1930s, but became famous primarily as a film director during the Third Reich and in post-war Germany. This portrait with film clips from various epochs of the German film is a combination of film history and family biography. With: Michael Verhoeven, Senta Berger, Mario Adorf, Stella Maria Adorf, Simon Verhoeven, Luca Verhoeven, Volker Schlöndorff

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Felix Moeller · PRODUCER François Duplat ·
SCREENPLAY Felix Moeller · EDITOR Gisela Zick · DOP Ludolph
Weyer

Germany 2003

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

English, German

PREMIERE

Germany (2003)