SYNOPSIS

Love does not know time. In 1966 Heiner Hinrichs was the youngest and most successful construction manager of Halle-Neustadt at the age of only 28. At his age he celebrates the autumn of his life with passion and humor and shares it with two women. But now he moves to a new apartment. And so the chubby pensioner has to chop-off his roots from a place that he influenced significantly. His resistance and ongoing will for independence lead to grotesque situations. Heiner Hinrichs shows that love and passion are indeed consistent with being old.
