

TURKEY UNDER THE AKP

by Osman Okkan, Halil Gülbeyaz

SYNOPSIS

Since the failed coup in July 2016, Turkey has changed at an unprecedented pace under the AKP, with Erdogan at its helm. An investigative documentary about the rise of the AKP.

Since the failed military coup in 2016, Turkey has changed at an unprecedented pace. Just a few years before the centenary of the Turkish Republic, Erdogan's "new Turkey" could not be further removed from Atatürk's vision of a western-oriented, secular democracy. Under AKP rule with Erdogan at its helm, the country is heading towards one-man rule. But such a concentration of power has its price: the economy is showing increasing signs of an existential crisis that could bring the country to the brink of collapse. This would have serious implications for Turkey, but also for Europe and the Middle East. The documentary describes the AKP's rise to all-dominant political force and the radical transformation of Turkey, driven forward with even greater urgency since the attempted coup. The film...

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Osman Okkan, Halil Gülbeyaz

2019

52 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Current Affairs, Economy, Politics

PREMIERE

Germany (2019)

WORLD SALES

NEW DOCS

Dasselstr. 75-77

50674 Köln

Germany

sales@newdocs.de

<http://www.newdocs.de>

PRODUCTION COMPANY

TAG/TRAUM Filmprod. GmbH

Apostelnstrasse 11

50667 Köln

Germany

info@tagtraum.de

<http://www.tagtraum.de>

LINKS / REFERENCE

<https://www.arte.tv/de/video/...>