

UNTITLED

by Michael Glawogger, Monika Willi

SYNOPSIS

“This film will give a view of the world that can only emerge by not pursuing any particular theme, by refraining from passing judgment, proceeding without aim. Drifting with no direction except one's own curiosity and intuition.” Michael Glawogger said. More than two years after the sudden death of Michael Glawogger in April 2014, film editor Monika Willi realizes a film out of the film footage produced during 4 months and 19 days of shooting in the Balkans, Italy, Northwest and West Africa.

A journey into the world to observe, listen and experience, the eye attentive, courageous and raw.

Serendipity is the concept – in shooting as well as in editing the film.
