

WEATHERMAKER

by Stanislaw Mucha

SYNOPSIS

The loneliest workplace in the world on a weather station on the edge of the Russian polar sea: A professional soldier who was re-trained to become a meteorologist and traumatized in the Chechnya war, his young wife, whose previous life in the world of cities and money had brutally failed, a cancer patient who has returned to his place of birth Pensioner, the boss of the station - with a dubious if not criminal past and Jack the dog. Five traumatized souls who try in the loneliness of a hostile nature that appears paradisiacal to deal with themselves, the absence of civilization, their human needs and inadequacies and to master their lives.
