

WILDE ZEITEN

by Patrick Protz, Dennis Gross

SYNOPSIS

"Party? Do we have to do that now?" "Yes!" says Alexander Dettke.

In 2013, he and his team founded the music and culture festival "Wilde Möhre" in Lusatia. A space that makes encounters possible without the conventions of everyday life. It's not just about dancing and partying. It's about a place that inspires change.

Due the pandemic, this cultural experiment is about to come to an end. But Alex Dettke doesn't think so...

Patrick Protz and Dennis Gross accompanied Alexander Dettke and his team from the first lockdown in spring 2020 until summer 2021. A time full of uncertainties, extraordinary encounters and many thoughts about the value that music, dance and culture has for all of us - on carefree but even more on gloomy days.
