

WINTERNACHTSTRAUM

by Andres Veiel

SYNOPSIS

In the end of the 20s Inca Köhler-Rechnitz concludes her theatrical education. She fancies with a role from the summer night dream in the Görlitzer municipal theatre - and receives immediately an offer. However, days before the beginning of the first playing time her husband refuses the then necessary approval. In the 30s it is threatened as a half Jew before the deportation in a concentration camp.

Only 60 years later she stands with the old amateur dramatic society DIE HERZSCHRITTMACHER for the first time in Berlin on the stage. Andre Veiel writes a piece for them with which they should appear in the Görlitzer Stadttheater.
