

YOU ARE MY AFRICA

by Helmut Schulzeck

SYNOPSIS

The film "You Are My Africa. A Black And White Love Story" is an autobiographical documentary about the filmmaker Helmut Schulzeck and his Kenyan wife Wangechi Schulzeck. For Helmut Africa had mainly been Cape Town for a number of years. It was there where in December 2003 he met Wangechi Njenga from Kenya. She became "his Africa". The film "You Are My Africa" tells the story of a love relationship with the two partners gradually acknowledging each other. It shows how a personal adventure develops into a clash of two cultures. And dealing with each other's culture seems to be as limited as the interaction on a personal level: How does Wangechi deal with Germany and how does Helmut deal with Kenya? How does Germany deal with Wangechi and how does Kenya deal with Helmut? And eventually, how do Wangechi and Helmut deal with each other? The film gives answers to these questions. Helmut and Wangechi got married in April 2006, during Wangechi's second stay in Germany. No...
