

YUME

by Shirin Saghaie, Annkatrin Hausmann

SYNOPSIS

YUME is a documentary about the aspirations and hopes of three young women living in different world capitals. Street singer Tonko struggles with the rising competition she faces on her way to becoming a star in the anonymity of Tokyo. For Ayin, being a kick boxer in the patriarchal society of Tehran means a restless fight against gender stereotypes. Analía is longing for an exit permit to leave Havana for her dream of a better life. Max Ophüls Preis, Saarbrücken; Zürich; WOMEN AT FRAME, Mexico City; Hannover; Exile, Gothenburg;

CAST AND CREW

DIRECTOR Shirin Saghaie, Annkatrin Hausmann · EDITOR Annkatrin Hausmann · DOP Shirin Saghaie

Germany 2011

65 min

FORMAL CATEGORIES

Coming of Age, Gender, Social issues

ORIGINAL LANGUAGES

Japanese, Spanish, Persian

PREMIERE

Germany (2011)

COPRODUCTION COMPANY

Kunsthochschule für Medien

Köln | KHM

Peter-Welter-Platz 2

50676 Köln

Germany

presse@khm.de

<http://www.khm.de>

LINKS / REFERENCE

<http://www.annkatrinhausman...>

<https://vimeo.com/85246818>